TIONS IN CHINA

a Terrible One—Thousands of Vivid Story of Suffering

The dogs licked the sores of Lazarus, China's poor. The dogs have learned such philanthropy! The dogs and beggars are cismatics, for they both live from the crumbs that fall from the rich man's table. Many beggars, stricken beyond walking, limp about with frozen feet, and unable to rise, their howls steady because of frozen hands. Only a little help, about twelve, without any relation that he can trace, comes in to see us on all four sides as his feet were frozen off three winters back. He cries in the cold weather with the pain of stumps.

At a Relief Station.

"This year there is no snow," said the Chinese conditions being aggravated by a summer drought. Though we are still only in the pioneering days in China, which means tightness of funds and scarcity of helpers, still, the 'wise' Mr. Foster Pearce made the proverbial 'why' and the 'how' of the work so clear that the necessary relief is at once apparent. It is one of my privileges to direct, in addition to my other work. In various other centres the Commissioner has organized the work of rescue.

I think of the diseases of these people. Hungry, cold, exposure, and the effect of the effort upon the system is extremely bad. Children and infants and other little children are either covered with small pox scales or else have their faces pitted to disfigurement. One young fellow was found lying on the terrace. He later upon enquiry he fell down. There is a shower of rain and a cold wind. Here is a photograph of another sad picture. There is a shower of rain.

parts, and in comes the most awful looking creature I ever saw. I could not hope to describe him, but one of my assistants calls out to me, "Here, the leper." We give him his food in his own bowl of soup, and let him go on his solitary way. "I curse, and let him go on his solitary way," there a man typhus, and yet the same and glorified by the words of the Gospel, "and he was comforted by the large bowl of boiling hot millet. It is thus we are honoured to 'hear the vessels of the Lord.'"

Poverty-Stricken Farmers.

"Some of the Army's guests are fairly well dressed, and visitors wonder at their presence in our midst. These are the farmers whose land last

He got nothing but dirt and weeds. The little money he had was gone in a few minutes. His horses and cattle, which had to go for two or three dollars each, brought them in next to nothing. He sold the remainder of seventy-five dollars he rented a small room to shelter the family and to get a little more money. He had to eat on porridge or rice all the time.

Many cases are from the immediate financial distress, and tragic stories are unfolded to us. One of our officers, who has been in the city for charge of some important books and papers, was attacked by robbers, who bound him, took out his money, and then killed him. His poor wife, who lived on his books. This poor husband, in this year, on account of the prevalent sickness, was compelled to come, with his young son leading him, to the city, in quest of the Salvation Army. There are at least a hundred other blind who come to us every day, and, sitting on the porch, make a pitiable sight.

He tried, but he gained the victory, and his faithfulness and courage have been greatly rewarded. He has more than two hundred Salvation

Officers are to be found in this distant battlefield, fighting away with the real Blood and Fire spirit, trying to win their fellow-men to Christ.

Last, but by no means the least, of the fruits of our comrade's labour, Commissioner Jai Singh (Bullard) is planning to train as Officers a large number of Lushai Cadets next Session.

The General's Great Call Campaign is meeting with great success in the Lushai Hills, and a real revival is in progress, and recently some forty new Soldiers have been Three Soldiers Enrolled—Tag Day Results in Good News Being Realized for Self-Denial.

"Throughout the week-end, April 9-10, this Corps witnessed all sorts of the wonderful workings of God and many answers to prayer.

During the Salvation meeting three comrades were enrolled as Soldiers. An altar service followed. Captain Clarke spoke powerfully, and in the prayer meeting we had the joy of seeing one soul at the penitent-form.

On Saturday a tag day was held, and $244 was realized. One of our latest Soldiers, while at work, got into conversation with another, and through the powers on the street, she had a very earnest visit, handed the money over for Self-Denial. She said she felt that she could not on appeal was being made to help the heathen—A. Bunton.

Self-Denial Target Smashed—Impressive Altar Service.

"During the week we were privileged to have Mrs. Commissioner Richards pay a visit to open our self-denial in the interest of Self-Denial. A splendid sum was realized. Our Sunday night altar service was a very impressive sight. While the Band played an appropriate piece the comrades made their way to the altar with their gifts. The response was splendid, and the Corps now rejoices over having smashed the $1,000 target set at the Holiness meeting. Adjutant Snowden gave a very helpful address, and also dedicated the two children of Band-Sergeant Smith to God. The afternoon family gathering was well attended, and Orderly Webborne gave a helpful Bible talk. During the week-end we heartily welcomed Bandsman McGarrage from Greenwood, Scotland, and Bandsman Timson, from Flint—R. Arnold.

Six Soldiers Enrolled—Home League Sews Quilts.

The Easter Sunday meetings were well attended. In the afternoon five "Young People" were enrolled. At night one Soldier was enrolled. The Home League, which was opened a short time ago, and under the leadership of Sister M. H. H. is doing fine. They recently met at the home of Mrs. Wood and devoted the evening to sewing quilts. Sister Evans, our acting Young People's Legion Leader, reports good times among the girls.

The Captain is relying on some of the Young People to play instruments, and is about to organize a Band.

MONTREAL IV.

On Sunday evening Adjutant Fincher, of the Prison Gate Work here, was with us. After the benediction had been pronounced, and we were going home, a sister who had been in the meeting came back and gave herself to God. We have started our Young People's Sunday evening service, which was well attended. Captain and Mrs. Courtis are our Officers.

CHATHAM, ONT.

Week-End Meetings Held by Lieut.-Colonel and Mrs. Miller—Visits to Hospital and Jail.

The Easter season was one of great activity and Salvation joy in Chatham. The services were conducted by Lieut.-Colonel and Mrs. Miller. On Sunday night, after an interesting open-air, the Colonel spoke about the early days of the Army in Canada. Early on Sunday morning the band and Soldiers met at the Citadel, and soon afterwards, the neighbourhood was being aroused by the strains of music. A prayer meeting followed, conducted by the Colonel.

At 10 a.m. the Band paid a visit to St. Joseph's Hospital, which was much appreciated. The Deputy Bandmaster, who had a few days previously undergone an operation, especially enjoyed this, as did the nurses and patients.

The Holiness meeting was one of blessing. Mrs. Miller speaking of the Power of His Restoration. In the afternoon the Colonel addressed the prisoners in the jail. At the Citadel he conducted an altar service. Mrs. Miller gave a very interesting and helpful address on "Home."

In spite of a very inclement weather, the Citadel was packed to the doors. The Songsters sang, "He is Risen," and the Band played, "Our music is a very impressive sight. While the Band played an appropriate piece the comrades made their way to the altar with their gifts. The response was splendid, and the Corps now rejoices over having smashed the $1,000 target set at the Holiness meeting. Good Festivals Given by Band and Songsters.

On Good Friday night the Songsters, under Leader E. Smith, gave a very helpful address, and were assisted by the Band. Ensign Wilson was chairman. The Easter services were in charge of Lieut.-Colonel and Mrs. Noble. The attendance was good, and the meetings were marked with a deep spiritual atmosphere. The Colonel gave three splendid addresses, and Mrs. Noble gave short talks in a motherly way. On the Monday the Band gave a Musical Festival, presided over by Lieut.-Colonel Adby. Amongst the various items were excellent vocal solos by Mr. L. Bennett, and a well-known solo by Songster V. Glover.

The Band rendered the "Vesper Hymn" music, and brought a fine programme to a close by singing "Abide With Me," as a Band song. Staff-Captain and Mrs. Kendall conducted the services on Founder's Day. There were fourteen seekers.—A. Majury.

The Captain is relying on some of the Young People to play instruments, and is about to organize a Band.

Two married couples and four other people have recently knelt at the mercy-seat. One man was a heavy drinker.

On a recent Sunday the child of Brother and Sister Hiscock was dedicated. The father is one of our recent converts. Guard Ansell was enrolled as a Soldier, and two comrades have offered themselves as Candidates. The Captain and Mrs. Foster are our Officers.

Envoys Alward and Burdett Conduct Week-End Meetings—Six Seekers.

On Good Friday a meeting of a deeply spiritual nature was conducted by Envoys Alward and Burdett. The services were marked with inspiration and blessing to us. Likewise the Easter Sunday meetings proved a blessing. At the close of our evening meeting the visible fruit of our labour was six souls. One man threw away a package of cigarettes, which he declared, was no more use to him. On Sunday morning, April 3, our Band visited Christie Hospital, and cheered the patients there.

We have welcomed our new brigade of Cadeets. The Sunday morning Holiness meetings are of the real heart-searching and hallowing type, and we are wonderfully blessed.

NEW WATERFORD.

Nine Seekers on Sunday.

Brigadier Prescott led our Easter week-end meetings, and we had the joy of seeing a number of souls knelt at the mercy-seat.

On Monday night we had our Easter Demonstration, over which Brigadier Prescott presided. A good programme was rendered by the Young People and some of the Senior comrades. The Instrumental and Vocal Quartette rendered two selections. At the close there was a sale of Easter eggs, on each of which was written an Army chorus or verse of Scripture. A good round sum was realized.

On the following Sunday morning two souls knelt at the mercy-seat. We had a memorial service at night for an Army friend who had passed away that week. At night Captain Greatrix spoke, and we had the joy of seeing seven come to the penitent-form. Our Band is doing well under the leadership of Acting Bandmaster Joe Davies, Jr. White.

Brigadier Southall Conducts Sunday Meetings.

Staff-Captain and Mrs. Kendall conducted our services on Sunday, April 3, and brought a fine programme of music and inspiration. They gave of their best, and we felt better for having them with us. Fourteen souls were enrolled, and consecration were recorded in the night-service. On the following Sunday Brigadier Southall was with us. His address was a most helpful talk from the Word of God. Three seekers came forward. The "Walkerville" Band rendered good service during all these meetings.

The following week-end we had the "Windsor" Songsters with us. The Brigade, under the leadership of the talented God has entrusted to them. Songster Mrs. Davis gave us very helpful talks from the Word of God. Three seekers came forward. The "Walkerville" Band rendered good service during all these meetings.

PETERBORO I.

Week-End Meetings Held by the Financial Secretary—Eighteen Young People Seek Salvation.

For the week-end of April 9-10 we were graced with a visit to Lieut.-Colonel Noble and Ensign Beer. On Saturday night a good open-air service was held, followed by a real old-fashioned Salvation meeting inside the Citadel. The Colonel gave a most interesting lecture, Mr. Williams moved a vote of thanks, which was seconded by Mr. Nichols.

The Holiness meeting was a season of inspiration and blessing, giving helpful addresses. The Hall was filled to capacity in the afternoon. Bandsman Nosworthy, who accompanied the Colonel, sang a solo, and Mrs. Martin gave a powerful Scripture lesson.

At night the Hall was again packed, and many had to turn away. Bandsman Nosworthy and Bandsman Taylor of New Chelsea, U.S.A., supplied a welcome musical accompaniment to the singing. Ensign Roberts led a lively testimony meeting, and the Colonel gave a convincing Salvation message. The seekers came to the mercy-seat. We finished up with a march round the Hall, singing a song of victory.

THIRTY-EIGHT RECRUITS

Are Enrolled at Halifax 1.—The Mayor Takes Part in Service—Marked Progress Being Made by Corps.

Special Services marked the Easter week-end at Halifax I.

On Good Friday morning, following a rousing open-air meeting on the parade, in which about seventy-five comrades took part, Brigadier and Mrs. Walton conducted a united Holiness meeting at the Citadel. One soul sought the blessing of a Clean heart.

Many Renewed Covenants.

At night, "The Life of Christ" (illustrated) drew a crowd that filled the main auditorium of the Citadel, and as the sufferings of Christ were shown, many renewed their covenant with God to follow Him all the way. Two souls came to the Cross on Saturday night, and were among the first at the opening on Sunday morning.

On Sunday morning, at 10 o'clock the Band, in a large motor truck, kindly loaned by the Stevens' of the Citadel, visited the various hospitals and rendered a short programme, greatly to the delight of the patients and staff. At the Holiness meeting, Adjutant Hargrove dedicated seven children to God and the Army, most of them being children of recent converts.

The Band and Songsters rendered a short programme in the afternoon, which was enjoyed by a large audience.

The enrolment at night drew a crowd that packed the building to the doors, and hundreds were turned away before the service commenced. The Band and Songsters occupied the two back rows on the platform, while down either side were seated the Senior and Junior Soldiers. A number of Officers were in the front seat. Enclosed by this wall of veterans were grouped the thirty-eight recruits, who that night were to become Salvation Army Soldiers. After reading the Articles of War, Adjutant Hargrove, in the name of His Worship Mayor Parker, who was in the audience, to a seat on the platform. His Worship read out the names of those who were to be enrolled, each one standing in order as their names were called. Then, with the flag floating over their heads, the Adjutant, in the name of the General, received them as Soldiers of the Salvation Army and the Halifax I Corps.

In a short address, complimented the Corps on the splendid progress which has been made, and in the name of the citizens of Halifax, thanked the Army for their self-sacrificing efforts in the interests of mankind. The Mayor also welcomed Adjutant Clark, the new Matron of the Maternity Hospital. Five souls came to Jesus in the prayer meeting.

On Monday night the Songsters gave their annual Festival, which was without doubt the best yet. "The Challenge of the Cross" was exceptionally well rendered, and spoke volumes for the Songster leader and those who assisted in the programme. Brigadier Walton presided.

Good Songster Festival.

On the following Sunday night several souls were converted. It may be of interest to note that in connection with the enrolment on Easter Sunday, there were seven married couples, among them being dear Father and Mother Knight. There were also two brothers, four sisters, and three brothers-in-law of another family. Since then another sister of the same family has been converted.

The enrolment at night drew a crowd that packed the building to the doors, and hundreds were turned away before the service commenced. The Band and Songsters occupied the two back rows on the platform, while down either side were seated the Senior and Junior Soldiers. A number of Officers were in the front seat. Enclosed by this wall of veterans were grouped the thirty-eight recruits, who that night were to become Salvation Army Soldiers. After reading the Articles of War, Adjutant Hargrove, in the name of His Worship Mayor Parker, who was in the audience, to a seat on the platform. His Worship read out the names of those who were to be enrolled, each one standing in order as their names were called. Then, with the flag floating over their heads, the Adjutant, in the name of the General, received them as Soldiers of the Salvation Army and the Halifax I Corps.

In a short address, complimented the Corps on the splendid progress which has been made, and in the name of the citizens of Halifax, thanked the Army for their self-sacrificing efforts in the interests of mankind. The Mayor also welcomed Adjutant Clark, the new Matron of the Maternity Hospital. Five souls came to Jesus in the prayer meeting.

On Monday night the Songsters gave their annual Festival, which was without doubt the best yet. "The Challenge of the Cross" was exceptionally well rendered, and spoke volumes for the Songster leader and those who assisted in the programme. Brigadier Walton presided.

Good Songster Festival.

On the following Sunday night several souls were converted. It may be of interest to note that in connection with the enrolment on Easter Sunday, there were seven married couples, among them being dear Father and Mother Knight. There were also two brothers, four sisters, and three brothers-in-law of another family. Since then another sister of the same family has been converted.

THE WAR CRY

EDITORIAL NOTES

The Summer Campaign.

THE first phase of the Great Call Campaign, the progress of which in all parts of the world gives cause for praise and thanksgiving to God, has afforded a good index of the determined character of the effort. But the period which has passed has been in the nature of a preliminary—non-hardened—and all forces are now called upon to go "over the top" and engage in desperate hand-to-hand fighting.

The battle-cry of the great Summer Campaign is "One by One." The character of the effort is such that perhaps one of the most important of the various sections into which the Campaign has been divided, bringing home as it does to every Salvationist his or her personal responsibility. This success of the battle does not depend upon the Divisional Commander or the Corps Officer, any more than upon the individual Soldier. Each Salvationist is called upon by the Commissioner to engage in vigorous individual attack against sin. This may take the form of button-holing, individual invitations to meetings, or visitation. Anyway, each Soldier is charged to endeavour to win one soul.

What a glorious outcome this Spring Campaign promises if each Soldier attacks and accepts his individual responsibility! The Army's numbers would be doubled in a very short time! And that would not mean merely God's Army strengthened, but Satan's forces weakened. Is any Salvationist hesitating and not yet in the thick of the fray? Does any feel that he is called to the battle by the irresistible forces of evil we are called upon to combat? Think for a moment of the tremendous sweep of sin in our own land.

Think, too, how men's interests are concerned with phenomenal things which interest us in the things of eternity: see the crowds so recklessly bent on pleasure as altogether to forget God; watch the amount of money which is poured out to gratify the passions of greed and other iniquities that abound.

Realizing these things, can any Soldier of Christ not feel impelled to desperate endeavour to fight these evils? Can any Salvationist realize the peril of a sin-cursed world without hastening to answer the Call of God which comes at this time?

NOTABLE SELF-DENIAL
VICTORY IN BRITAIN

All Previous Records Surpassed.

The result of the recently-conducted Self-Denial Effort in the United Kingdom is a splendid success over any previous ordinary Effort (says the British "War Cry") and that under what have been in many respects, unusual conditions. Last year, an Appeal was associated with the Jubilee Appeal and Fund, and is not, therefore, to be taken as a basis of comparison. The total for England is £132,063; for Scotland, £20,724; for Wales, £11,020; for Ireland, £4,005; making a total of £167,812, or an increase of £238,669 on 1919.

In estimating the real worth of this truly notable victory, it should be borne in mind not only that the target set—namely £150,000—was based upon the total achieved in 1919, but that the target was fixed by the General, some months ago, when the state of the country's trade and finances was very different from that which has been brought about by the unfortunate slump in industry, and which prevailed so extensively, which the Effort was made in 1920. Were this not so, the British Commissioner might have felt at least some hesitation in endorsing the result of the Effort as a goal.

It is not less gratifying also in that the Divisional Officers all over the country, as well as those associated with the Effort, have realized that the Self-Denial triumph has in the main been gained by the faith and perseverance of the Field Officers, Local Officers, and Soldiers. Their ingenuity and enthusiasm have been most fruitfully rewarded, and they have shown that they serve so loyally a fitting reward.

Never before, perhaps, has it been so apparent that the Effort is one which has so large and so true a conception of the Salvation Army and its work, and a corresponding interest in its service to all classes of the community in every land, and in particular to the poor and the suffering. There is no more general giving, while considering less asking was necessary. This is a hopeful sign both for the Army's growth and for the future operations in the Home-land.

DEATH OF LADY HENRY
SOMERSET

By the passing of Lady Henry Somerset, friendless women and non-warlike children have lost a much-loved and hearted champion, and the Salvation Army an enthusiastic supporter. Especially concerned about the down-trodden, whether by reason of adverse circumstances, or through evil habits or associations, her ladyship was attracted by the "War Cry" and the "Land Scheme" and particularly interested in the Halifax Land and Industrial Colony.

When, a quarter of a century ago, the Armenian massacre horrified all Christians, Lady Henry Somerset was the first to insist that the Salvation Army in the efforts which our Officers made to succour the hundreds of refugees who had fled to Canada for safety.

A new Maternity Hospital has just been opened in Gisborne (New Zealand) the gift of two brothers in memory of a relative. This Hospital is an up-to-date one, with good and good accommodation, supplies an urgent need.

THE GREAT CALL CAMPAIGN
Living for Others

Extracts from a Rousing Bible Reading delivered Thirst-Four Years ago

By THE GENERAL

THESE words were spoken by Jesus just before He left His disciples. They are taken from the seventh chapter of John's Gospel. And now come I to Thee, and these things I speak in the world that they—that is, us—might have joy fulfilled in themselves. Some people grumble at the Salvation Army because we are such a happy people; because we sing so much, laugh so much, and make such a to-do about our religion. If you are not happy it is because you haven't the true Salvationist spirit in your breast!

"I have given them Thy word; and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world." I am very glad that is here. We Salvationists are a great deal of hatred; but we don't get as much as our Master. "I hope the world hates you! I have no higher ambition for you than that the men and women who are under the influence of evil, under the power of the Devil, should hate you. You are not hated, look out! You are not so much as you should be. People who neither cold nor hot do not get hated; but God says that they that He will spurn them out of His mouth. It is the people who are hot for God—who set God first, who set souls first—that the world hates as it hated our Master, and as our Master foretold it would hate them.

THE PRAYER OF CHRIST.

Then He goes on to pray. What for? That Thou shouldst take them away from the hatred? That Thou shouldst remove them out of it and give them an easy time of it somewhere else? That Thou shouldst make them feel at home and good respectable and proper, polite and smooth, so as to make religion an easy thing; and that they should not be so much hated? No; but fully realizing what this hatred meant, and what it would mean to His disciples, in these very hours in which He was Himself realizing it in the deepest sense of His mind, He said, "I pray not that Thou shouldst take them out of the world, but that Thou shouldst keep them from the evil."

"They are not of the world." This is what Jesus Christ intended with regard to you. That means they are not like the world. They are not of its spirit. They are not seeking its ends. They are not looking for its pleasures, its pleasures, its pleasures. They are not of its kind. They are not to look like it; their looks are to be different. They are not to dress like it; their dress is to be different. They are not to live like it; they are to be in it, but not of it.

Now, you Salvationists, here is a spiritual tape-measure for you, by which you can test yourselves as to how far you have realized the purpose of Jesus Christ's death. Measure yourselves by it.

"As Thou hast sent Me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world"—to love it, to weave over it, to seek its lost ones, to cleanse it, to be in it of the same spirit as I myself have been, to seek in it the same objects as I myself have sought, to suffer for it in the same fashion, if not in the same degree, as I myself have suffered, to save your souls.

"Selfishness in religion is just as bad as selfishness in Hell. God hates it just as much, curses it just as bitterly, detests it with just as deep an abhorrence. If you are only trusting in Christ, or trying to trust in Christ, for the purpose of saving your own skin; if you have only accepted the truths of this blessed Book, taken the name of Christian, or of the true form of a Salvation Soldier, simply to save your own soul, to avoid the wrath of God for yourself, and if you have no great big burning compassion for the souls of others, no great big living purpose to seek in the Salvation Army, then you are a selfish man, selfish, selfish, selfish, selfish, selfish! You are a mean, small, narrow, contemptible pig, and I am afraid God looks down upon you with a mingled feeling of pity and disgust!

SENT TO SAVE THE LOST.

"As Thou hast sent Me!"—with that great heart of love purposing that I should live and suffer and weep and bleed and die for the world's sin. As Thou hast sent me into the world, to rescue the lost, to rescue the poor, to rescue the who are afar off, to rescue the poor, to bring joy to the sorrowful, to wipe away the tears of those that weep. "As Thou hast sent Me to be a servant and a Saviour of mankind—even so I, the Lord Jesus Christ, send you, Bramwell Booth; you John Smith; you, Mary Adley; you, Maria Wilkinson, or whatever your name is, to seek and to save the lost."

That is full Salvation; that is what Jesus Christ came to do: that is the purpose of His life; that is the meaning of His death. And the want of that is the reason why the world lies to-day in the arms of the wicked one. That is why Jesus Christ is in a minority. It is because people have said, "We will have the Christ, but we will not have His life, and taking it all for themselves, have set down in a sort of easy-chair, thinking if they can get to Heaven with their wives and children it doesn't matter much about other people.

Are you living that life for others? God has called you to it. This is the way to live that life and love that pattern, with which He wants to make you able to live for the lost as He did. He can do it! Our Jesus is able to save you and keep you, and to send you as the Father sent Him, to live for others. Halloo!

PERSONAL AND NEWSY

International.

The Chief of the Staff is announced to conduct the forthcoming Assession. Day of the Year. Switzerland in May. Lieut-Colonel Catherine Booth will also take part. Mrs. Commissioner Booth-Tucker, one of the speakers at the Annual Convention of the London Christian Endeavour Federation, presided over by Rev. F. B. Meyer, at the Metropolitan Tabernacle. Brigadier fusse, Training Garrison Principal and Literary Secretary James Lurie, Immigration Secretary for Australia, who has for some time been in England on emigration business, is returning to the Commonwealth by way of Canada. He will act as conductor of a party of emigrants.

In a general letter, a sympathizer of the Army's work, writing about a lost lad who has now been found, says: "The boy's mother is an English girl and a true lover of the Salvation Army. I knew you would help me to find her boy." Though it is not always possible to trace the person it is cheering to receive such warm appreciation of our efforts.

Territorial.

The mother of Mrs. Lieut-Colonel Bettridge has just been promoted to glory. Mrs. Bettridge, a Christian, she had reached the ripe age of 77 years, and some idea of the character and length of her service may be gathered from the fact that thirty-five years ago her husband, her son, and her daughter—now Mrs. Bettridge—were led to God by her. Mrs. Bettridge's father died last year, so there has now been a happy reunion in the Better Land.

English Army and Navy officers, who are in command of the Corps, have been corded to the M.C.A. building, where a very interesting gathering took place. Invitations had been sent out to a large number of friends to meet this occasion, and the acceptance of this invitation by so many of the influential people of Galt evidenced their interest and practical sympathy for the Salvation Army and its work for the uplift of humanity.

PROMOTED TO GLORY

A Nephew of the Commissioner Called Home.

A cable to hand from International Headquarters announces the promotion to glory of Staff-Captain Wm. H. Richards, nephew of the Commissioner and a member of the staff for the second time within a brief space. The death of the young man, who was appointed as that of the People's Secretary in the latter Division of the Old Land, was a sad one. He was a man of great promise, and we shall hope to publish in the early issue some particulars of his career. The Staff-Captain Richards predeceased her husband, who died some time ago.

Opening of the Summer Section
OF THE GREAT CALL CAMPAIGN

A MESSAGE FROM THE COMMISSIONER

With profound gratitude to God for the abundant evidences of His favour, which have been shown upon our efforts to honour His name and save souls during the Winter Section of the Campaign, I am now looking forward to the opening of the Summer Section with expectations for greater things than ever.

Salvationists of all ranks have in this Campaign opportunities which are unequalled, and I call upon one and all to consecrate himself and herself afresh to the prosecution of the war against sin in every shape and form.

Glorious as have been the victories won during the Winter, they must not be allowed to lead to any slackening of effort or diminution of attack; rather must we let what has been accomplished strengthen our faith and zeal for the greater victories which lie ahead. God is with us, we are His Soldiers, and if each one will let his utmost in the power of the Holy Ghost this second section of the year's Campaign will carry with it blessings, and secure results affecting not only Canada East, but reaching also to more distant parts of the earth.

Every Officer has his instructions, every Soldier should be in his place, and from to-day there must be a determined effort in the name and strength of Jehovah to live better than ever. The Flag that always has carried the day—the Flag of the Salvation Army!

Yours at the Front,

WM. J. RICHARDS,
Commissioner.

THE COMMISSIONER

Conducts Stirring Week-end Campaign at Galt—Public Reception at the Station—Visit to the Hospital—Crowded Meetings—Ten Seekers

THE City of Galt was favoured with the presence of the Commissioner last Saturday and Sunday, April 9 and 10, and a very happy and successful week-end was the outcome. The Commissioner was accompanied by Lieut-Colonel Adley and Margrave.

Received by Citizens.

The first item on the programme was a public reception at the C.P. Station, where the Commissioner was heartily received by His Worship the Mayor and a number of the most prominent ladies and gentlemen of the city.

Headed by the Corps Band, the Commissioner and party proceeded to the M.C.A. building, where a very interesting gathering took place. Invitations had been sent out to a large number of friends to meet this occasion, and the acceptance of this invitation by so many of the influential people of Galt evidenced their interest and practical sympathy for the Salvation Army and its work for the uplift of humanity.

A very nicely arranged banquet was followed by several eulogistic addresses as to the Army's work, and special reference was made to the untiring efforts and hard work of Ensign and Mrs. Cooke, who are in command of the Corps. The proceedings were under the direction of our old friend, Mr. R. L. Clark, President of the Board of Trade, and for three years Chairman of the Self-Denial and War Drive Campaign. His Worship the Mayor, who was very warmly welcomed, expressed his appreciation for all he had seen and heard, and was most happy to say that the "War Cry" and the Self-Denial Campaign had been so successful.

The Commissioner told many stories and gave many striking illustrations during the course of his address, which was listened to with the deepest interest throughout its entire length. F. S. Scott, M.P., in moving a vote of thanks to the Commissioner, who has been working so hard on behalf of the Salvation Army and the sense of satisfaction it must be to the citizens of Galt to have such a man being used in such a splendid manner in all parts of the world. S. I. Richards, the Mayor, said that the "War Cry" and the Self-Denial Campaign had been so successful.

It has been said that "initiation is the sincerest form of flattery," and perhaps there is something in the contention. Be that as it may, it is interesting to note that in a letter received here from Winnipeg the Commissioner has been complimented that the good example set by Canada East is about to be imitated in the West. The Canadian Commission of a "Young Soldier" is its own.

Since the formation of a separate Territory, some four years ago, Canada East, with that word which is synonymous with her name, has regularly furnished the Corps in the sister Territory with a supply of "Young Soldiers" from Toronto, and now that the West will be able to meet its own needs the East will be free to attend to the circulation of the Young People's paper within the Territory.

The most interesting of the latest addition to the list of Army medicals—now getting on towards one hundred—appears simultaneously with the "War Cry" and we wish the younger a useful future, under the good hand of God.

Little more than a stone's throw from the "War Cry" office, in the lawn before the City Hall, are two square flower beds. All through the winter, when not covered in ice and snow, the bare brown earth has suggested to the thoughtful passerby the possibilities of summer flowers. But, barely waiting for the disappearance of frost, from these beds have recently sprung a mass of flowers on row of tulip leaves, and one long blade of clover has assuredly delighted the eye.

The Commissioner's recent growth and the flowers soon-to-be, lies, of course, in the planting, done about the middle of the year, and the work of the Salvationist! How often it remains hidden—what a lot of thinking ahead has to be done—before the harvest begins to show, how rich they are in promise of the harvest by and by! [Hallelujah!]

Apart from Colonel Pugin's public appearances, his brief visit to Toronto has been marked by many happy episodes. There is, of course, no corner in these Headquarters with which he is unfamiliar, nor is there any one of the offices where a welcome is so cordial. Round the table where—as far as duties will allow of it—heads of departments are very much appreciated, the Commissioner spoke. One seeker came to the altar.

The Mayor Presents.

A large audience gathered in the Regent Theatre in the afternoon to hear the Commissioner lecture on "The World Wide Salvation Army." The Mayor, Mr. J. E. Charlton, president, supported a number of prominent citizens.

The Commissioner told many stories and gave many striking illustrations during the course of his address, which was listened to with the deepest interest throughout its entire length. F. S. Scott, M.P., in moving a vote of thanks to the Commissioner, who has been working so hard on behalf of the Salvation Army and the sense of satisfaction it must be to the citizens of Galt to have such a man being used in such a splendid manner in all parts of the world. S. I. Richards, the Mayor, said that the "War Cry" and the Self-Denial Campaign had been so successful.

A GOOD INVESTMENT

"Our friends are invited to deposit their money with us. Money is urgently required for the erection of suitable buildings to meet the increasing demands for the work of the Salvation Army throughout the territory. It is in this way that we make up the difference between the actual cost and the amount raised by public subscriptions.

The fund is administered with the greatest care and economy, and the Army property being a substantial security. A good rate of interest is paid every year, March and September, and negotiations are treated with the utmost confidence.

In placing money with the Army in this way, depositors are at no disadvantage to themselves, while the money so loaned is being used for the extension of the Kingdom of God and the saving of souls.

Letters may be withdrawn at any time, in accordance with the terms of the arrangement made with the depositors.

Officers are sometimes in a position to influence persons who are seeking to place their money in a good purpose in the year kindly co-operation is solicited. For further particulars, write to the Financial Secretary, Albert Street, Toronto, Ontario, marking your letter personal.

SONGS OF SALVATION

HEED HIS CALL

Tune: Let the rest of the world go by.

If you're weary of life,
Its struggles and strife,
Heed the Saviour's loving call.
From best Calvary's hill,
He is offering still,
Salvation free to all.

Chorus.
He's calling for you,
To leave the joys of earth behind,
And you will find
Such wondrous love beyond degree
God's free gift to you and me.
Your sinning will cease,
You'll find perfect peace,
When to the Saviour you draw nigh—
Then make your choice while you may,
No longer delay,
Don't let your Saviour and Friend go by.

Then the future will hold,
Such rapture untold.
Christ Himself will be your Guide.
He will bear you in love
To the mansions above,
Across death's rolling tide.

RALLY ROUND THE BANNER.

Tune—Sound the battle-cry, B.B.
73; Song-Book, 554.

Sound the battle-cry!
Set the foe on high;
Raise the standard high,
For the Lord;
Gird your armour on;
Stand firm every one;
Rest your cause upon
His holy word!

Rouse, then, Soldiers! Rally round
the banner,
Ready, steady, pass the word
along;
Onward, forward, shout a loud Hosanna!
Christ is Captain of the mighty throng.
Strong to meet the foe;
Marching on we go.
While our cause we know.
Must prevail:
Shield and banner bright
Gleaming in the light;
Battling for the right,
We've er can fail.

WE'RE BOUND FOR THE LAND.

Tune—We're Bound for the Land,
201. S. B. 63.
We're bound for the land of the pure and the holy:
The home of the happy, the Kingdom of Love;
Ye wanderers from God, in the broad road of folly,
Oh, say, will you go to the Eden
above?

Chorus.
Will you go? Oh, say, will you go to the Eden above?
In that blessed land neither sighing
nor anguish
Can breathe in the fields where the glorified
Oh, heart-burdened ones, who in misery languish,
Oh, say, will you go to the Eden
above?
